GOVERNOR

April 6, 2017

To Whom It May Concern:

Youth who exited foster care in California after turning age 18 are eligible for Medi-Cal benefits under the Affordable Care Act until age 26 regardless of income level. This includes youth who exited from the URM program after turning age 18. If you are not receiving Medi-Cal benefits and would like to do so, please contact your local county Medi-Cal office. For more information on how to enroll in Medi-Cal as a former URM see the enclosed document.

If you exited the URM program and paid for Medi-Cal covered services before age 26, you may be eligible for reimbursement of those costs. Information about reimbursement can be found on the Conlan claim website http://www.dhcs.ca.gov/services/medi-cal/Pages/Medi-Cal_Conlan.aspx and the November 2006 Beneficiary Notice for Reimbursement of Out of Pocket Expenses.

If you have questions on this notice, please contact (916) 654-4356 or urm@dss.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Refugee Programs Bureau
